Citi Appointed Depositary Bank for Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited's ADR Program

Citi's Issuer Services business, acting through Citibank, N.A., has been appointed by Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZ) as the successor depositary bank for its sponsored Level 1 American Depositary Receipt (ADR) program.

ANZ's ADRs are traded in the United States over-the-counter market under the symbol "ANZBY," with each ADR representing one ordinary share. ANZ's ordinary shares are listed on the Australian Stock Exchange.

"We are delighted to be appointed depositary bank for ANZ's ADR program," said Dirk Jones, Head of Global Issuer Services at Citi. "With Citi's investor relations expertise and unparalleled global presence, we are confident that our powerful platform will enable the success of ANZ's ADR program."

Citi is a leading provider of Depositary Receipt Services. With Depositary Receipt programs in 55 markets, Citi leverages its global network to help companies connect to new markets and raise capital worldwide.
