

Dividend Charity Donation Program

Meet our Dividend Charity Donation Program partners today:

Formally known as Alzheimer's Australia, Dementia Australia is recognised as the national peak body in all matters concerning dementia, and in representing people living with dementia, including sufferers' families and carers. Dementia Australia is a member of Alzheimer's Disease International, the umbrella organisation of Dementia and Alzheimer's Associations around the world.

For more information visit: www.dementia.org.au

Amnesty International was established in 1961 and today is an independent, politically impartial worldwide movement that works to both promote and defend human rights around the world. To ensure independence, Amnesty International accepts no financial aid from governments or political parties for its work defending human rights. Instead it relies on individuals who support its vision of a world free of tyranny, discrimination and cruelty.

For more information visit: www.amnesty.org.au

The Intensive Care Foundation is dedicated to improving the care of critically ill patients, through funding vital clinical research. Its overall aim is to improve the number of lives saved and the quality of those lives, for those unlucky enough to end up in Intensive Care.

For more information visit: www.intensivecarefoundation.org.au

Established in 1877 as the Victorian Infant Asylum, Berry Street's core activity has always been protecting children and strengthening families. Today, Berry Street is the largest independent child and family services organisation in Victoria.

For more information visit: www.berrystreet.org.au beyondblue is a national, independent not-for-profit organisation working to address issues associated with depression, anxiety and related substance use disorders in Australia. beyondblue works in partnership with health services, schools, workplaces, universities, the media and community organisations, as well as people living with depression. beyondblue is focused on increasing public awareness and reducing the stigma associated with depression.

For more information visit: www.beyondblue.org.au

The Brotherhood of St Laurence is a Victorian based welfare agency that has been working for more than 70 years towards an Australia that is free of poverty. It undertakes comprehensive research to understand people's needs then develops programs to give individuals and communities the skills and support they need.

For more information visit: www.bsl.org.au

CanTeen is a national peer support organisation for young Australians aged between 12 and 25 who are living with cancer. CanTeen's young people are cancer patients, brothers or sisters of cancer patients or young people with parents or primary carers with cancer. CanTeen provides a place where they can simply be young people - away from the environment of cancer hospitals and treatment regimes.

For more information visit: www.canteen.org.au

The Diabetes Australia Research Trust (DART) is a national Trust, established by Diabetes Australia in 1987, which is seeking a cure or improved treatment for all types of diabetes. Each year the DART panel carefully selects what it considers to be the best Australian Diabetes researchers to receive its grants.

For more information visit: www.diabetesaustralia.com.au

Foodbank is a non-denominational, non-profit organisation which acts as a pantry to the charities and community groups which feed the hungry. It was first established in 1992 in NSW and now has a presence in every state and the Northern Territory with distribution centres in all state capitals as well as a number of regional centres.

For more information visit: www.foodbank.org.au

Greening Australia is passionate about protecting and restoring the health, diversity and productivity of Australia's unique landscapes. It tackles critical issues like salinity, declining water quality, soil degradation, climate change and biodiversity loss through an innovative blend of practical experience, science, community engagement and commitment.

For more information visit: www.greeningaustralia.org.au

Habitat for Humanity builds simple, affordable houses in partnership with low income families. Through donations of money, materials, and volunteer labour under trained supervision, Habitat builds and renovates homes with the assistance of the homeowner (partner) families. Since 1976, Habitat has built over 200,000 houses around the world. Houses are sold to partner families at less than market value, financed with affordable, no-interest loans.

For more information visit: www.habitat.org.au

At the Howard Florey Institute, internationally renowned scientists work together with talented young researchers to make discoveries about the brain. Its scientists undertake clinical and applied research that can be developed into treatments to combat brain disorders, and into new medical practices. Some areas in which its scientists work include: Parkinson's disease, Stroke, Traumatic brain and spinal cord injury, Addiction, Epilepsy, Multiple sclerosis, Brain function in gifted children, Dementia, Schizophrenia, Muscular dystrophy, Autism and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder.

For more information visit: www.florey.edu.au

Kids Helpline is a free, 24 hour counselling service for young people aged 5-25 years. Counselling is offered by phone, email and over the web. Counsellors respond to more than 6,000 calls each week about issues ranging from relationship breakdowns and bullying, to sexual abuse, homelessness, suicidal thoughts, and drug and alcohol use. Kids Helpline is a service of BoysTown.

For more information visit: www.kidshelpline.com.au

Lifeline is a national charity providing all Australians experiencing a personal crisis with access to 24 hour crisis support and suicide prevention services. People call Lifeline's 24 hour crisis line about suicidal thoughts or attempts, personal crisis, anxiety, depression, loneliness, abuse and trauma, stress from work, family or society and self-help information for friends and family.

For more information visit: www.lifeline.org.au

Little Heroes Foundation raises vital funds for seriously ill children and provides valuable support to those children and their families after diagnosis. Funding programs are directed primarily to urgently needed medical facilities and treatment equipment, and 'Life After Diagnosis' child and family support programs relative to childhood cancer and serious illness.

For more information visit: www.littleheroesfoundation.com.au

The National Breast Cancer Foundation (NBCF) is Australia's leading independent, not-for-profit community organisation supporting and promoting high quality research into the prevention, detection and treatment of breast cancer. Funds are directed to what the organisation considers to be the best research in Australia. NBCF is dedicated to progressing public knowledge about breast cancer and ways to improve support for women and their families.

For more information visit: www.nbcf.org.au

The Heart Foundation is a charity dedicated to fighting heart disease. Thanks to the Heart Foundation much has been learnt about heart disease, but there is so much more to discover - around 40% of deaths from heart disease are still unexplained. By supporting the Heart Foundation, you can help discover more about heart disease and hopefully prevent more lives from being lost. Donations from the community will help fund vital medical research, develop guidelines for health professionals, support patient care and help Australians to live healthier lifestyles.

For more information visit: www.heartfoundation.org.au

Often the biggest barrier between teenagers and their goals is a lack of self-belief and support. To encourage this essential self-confidence, Reach runs workshops, weekends away and large-scale events for teenagers every year. It believes that every young person has something special to offer that is often hidden behind fear, anger or hurt. Research shows that Reach helps teenagers to improve their self-esteem and take greater control over their lives. Your donation to Reach will make a real difference to a young Australian's future; helping continue innovative and in-demand programs.

For more information visit: www.reach.org.au

RECONCILIATION AUSTRALIA

Reconciliation Australia is an independent, not-for-profit organisation that works to help Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations that are making a difference to the lives of children in some of Australia's most disadvantaged communities. Reconciliation Australia encourages Aboriginal children to go to school, develop healthy lifestyles and to plan for a positive future.

For more information visit: www.reconciliation.org.au

Royal Flying Doctor Service

The Royal Flying Doctor Service (RFDS) is a not-for-profit charitable organisation providing aeromedical emergency and primary health care services to people who live, work and travel in regional and remote Australia. RFDS operational bases and health facilities form a strategic network that facilitates the effective and efficient delivery of health care throughout the country. Without the support received from so many, the RFDS would not be able to continue to provide such an efficient and effective life-saving service.

For more information visit: www.flyingdoctor.org.au

The RSPCA is a not-for-profit charity that is firmly based in the Australian community and depends on the support of individuals, businesses and organisations to survive and continue its vital work. Its mission is to prevent cruelty to animals by actively promoting their care and protection through national campaigns, public education programs, proposing changes to legislation and operating animal shelters and veterinary clinics throughout the country.

For more information visit: www.rspca.org.au

Starlight's mission is to brighten the lives of seriously, chronically and terminally ill and hospitalised children and their families throughout Australia. It does this by way of positive distraction, entertaining children to take their minds off their pain by providing an opportunity for them to simply be kids, have fun and connect with other children and families.

For more information visit: www.starlight.org.au

As Australia's oldest charity, the Benevolent Society's vision is to build strong, healthy communities by supporting those who are disadvantaged and vulnerable: children at risk of abuse, women experiencing domestic violence, people with disabilities and their carers who need support, and frail, elderly people living with dementia. The Benevolent Society's work is long-term, providing individual support to clients where and how they need it most.

For more information visit: beloved.benevolent.org.au

The Cancer Council Australia's goal is to lead the development and promotion of national cancer control policy in Australia, in order to prevent cancer and reduce the illness, disability and death caused by cancer. It acts nationally to advise government and other bodies on appropriate practice and policies for the prevention, detection and treatment of cancer and is an advocate for the rights of cancer patients to best treatment and supportive care.

For more information visit: www.cancer.org.au

The Smith Family is a national independent organisation that seeks to use practical, effective programs to help families break the cycle of poverty. Funds donated through community giving will help many more Australian children get a better start in life; ensuring financial disadvantage doesn't prevent them from reaching their full potential.

For more information visit: www.thesmithfamily.com.au

World Vision is a world-wide, humanitarian aid and development agency helping over 72 million people in more than 90 countries through the provision of emergency relief, child and adult health care, and community development services.

For more information visit: www.worldvision.com.au

December 2017