

MICHELLE JABLKO

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michelle Jablko joined ANZ as its Chief Financial Officer on 18 July 2016.

SKILLS, EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

Prior to joining ANZ, Michelle had a 15 year career in investment banking working across different industries, including financial services, providing advice to Australian companies on strategy, capital management and funding, and investor relations.

Most recently Michelle was at Greenhill Australia where she was the Managing Director and Co-Head jointly responsible for leading its Australian business. She also spent almost 15 years at UBS Australia.

Straight out of university, Michelle initially worked as a lawyer at Allens Linklaters focussed on M&A, banking, tax and finance law.

Michelle graduated with First Class Honours in Law and Honours in Economics from Monash University in Melbourne.

KEY DATES

2016 Appointed Chief Financial Officer, ANZ

2014 Managing Director and Co-Head, Greenhill, Australia

2000 Managing Director, UBS, Australia

1997 Lawyer, Allens Linklaters (formerly Allens Arthur Robinson), Australia

Age: 44 years. Residence: Melbourne, Australia. Nationality: Australian.